

As the Reception curriculum is guided by specific statutory frameworks, including Development Matters and the Early Learning Goals, we have not integrated our Reception units into our two-year rolling programme. However, please be assured that you can effectively implement our scheme for Key Stage 1 and 2, even without using our Reception units.

EYFS (Reception)
Autumn 1	What makes us special? (5 lessons)	Autumn 2	What are special times? (5 lessons)
	Exploring the different ways people are special. Through stories, discussions and creative activities, they learn about what makes themselves, people around them and in the community special. They learn that it is good for people to have different beliefs and ideas and that some Christian people believe in God and Jesus.		Discovering and comparing special times of Diwali and Christmas. Using pictures, videos, and storytelling, they explore the significance of these festivals and how they are celebrated. Learning about the traditions associated with Diwali and Christmas and discussing the importance of these celebrations in bringing communities together.
Spring 1	Why are some places special? (5 lessons)	Spring 2	What makes the world special? (5 lessons)
	Investigating what makes places special and significant to different people. Starting by discussing places that are special to them, they will learn about about religious buildings and places of worship and discuss the importance of these places to others.		Exploring what makes the world around them special, children will learn why the world can be special to both themselves and others. Listening to other people's ideas about caring for the world and discussing reasons why this is important.
Summer 1	Why are some things special? (5 lessons)	Summer 2	Why are some stories special? (5 lessons)
	Exploring the meaning and value of special items through discussion, children examine artefacts and images to understand their significance to some people. They discuss how objects can hold personal or communal importance and learn to respect and appreciate these differences.		Listening to different stories, children will explore what they can learn about people's beliefs. They will understand that stories have the power to inspire and teach, encouraging people to do good things, which makes stories special.
Time to celebrate (6 lessons)
Exploring the significance of various festivals, through stories, images and creative activities, they learn about the customs and meanings behind these celebrations. Allowing for personalisation, enabling teachers to incorporate festivals that are most relevant to the school community. Engaging in discussions and activities that highlight the importance of these special times in bringing people together and fostering a sense of community. Reflecting on their own experiences and sharing how they celebrate special occasions with their families.

Children investigate the symbolism in these ceremonies and seek connections between the ways people from diverse worldviews celebrate a new baby. (Muslim, Hindu, Christian, Humanist)		Expanding on their learning about prayer and worship, children examine buildings within their local area and beyond. Through investigating, they discover what the features of the buildings might reveal about people's beliefs about god. Children design their own place of worship based on their learning. (Hindu, Alevi, Muslim, Sikh)
Additional collection lessons (optional)	Christmas What can light mean at Christmas? (1 lesson)	Easter Why does Easter bring hope to many Christians? (1 lesson)
	Investigating why light is important to some people at Christmas.	Recognising that Easter celebrates Jesus coming back to life and exploring how it gives many Christians hope.

Year 3/4 Cycle A

Autumn 1	Respectful R&W (1 lesson) Learning about religion and worldviews and teaching children how to be respectful during Religion and worldviews lessons.	Autumn 2	Why is water symbolic? (6 lessons) Exploring the many ways water is used in rituals and ceremonies, children explore the symbolic use of water and look at what stories from scripture suggest about water. From this, they create poetry to express ideas about the symbolism and significance of water. Children think about how people's beliefs about water's preciousness might affect their actions. (Christian, Muslim, Shinto)
	What makes us human? (6 lessons) Exploring ideas about spirituality, inner self and the soul, children interpret and use art to express beliefs about the soul and inner self and design a book cover and blurb for a book called 'What makes us human?' (Hindu, Christian, Buddhist, Humanist)		Who was Jesus really? (6 lessons) Using accounts from the Bible, children explore how Jesus was represented and viewed by different people during his life. They learn about his ministry and reflect on how the parables he shared and the miracles some Christians believe he performed are interpreted by different people. Through the Easter story, pupils also examine the significance of Jesus' death and resurrection to many Christians.
Spring 1	What makes some texts sacred? (6 lessons) Looking at different ways scriptures are used, what this shows about the value placed on them and why this might be. Children consider how and why beliefs about revelation and the origins of texts affect how they are viewed looking at a range of sources. (Jewish, Christian, Buddhist)	Spring 2	Why is the Bible the best-selling book of all time? (6 lessons) Using historical skills and knowledge, children explore how the Christian Bible that exists today developed. They look at the different types of writing within the Bible and when it was written. Pupils find out how some Christians use their Bibles and present their ideas as marketers of the Bible. (Christian)
Summer 1	Why is fire used ceremonially? (6 lessons) Continuing to look at symbolism, children explore the use of fire in many ceremonies and as a symbol of remembrance. They create freeze frames of different Hindu fire ceremonies and design a candle to remember a particular person or event.	Summer 2	Why is the Bible the best-selling book of all time? (6 lessons) Using historical skills and knowledge, children explore how the Christian Bible that exists today developed. They look at the different types of writing within the Bible and when it was written. Pupils find out how some Christians use their Bibles and present their ideas as marketers of the Bible. (Christian)
Additional collection lessons (optional)	Christmas Why do many Christians think that Christmas is good news? (1 lesson) Considering how people in the nativity story would have reacted to the news of Jesus' birth.	Easter What can Easter teach about forgiveness? (1 lesson) Investigating a range of sources including the Easter story, bible quotes and personal responses to find out what Easter can teach about forgiveness.

Year 3/4 Cycle B

Autumn 1	Respectful R&W (1 lesson)	Autumn 2	Where do we get our morals from? (6 lessons) - coming soon!
	Learning about religion and worldviews and teaching children how to be respectful during Religion and worldviews lessons.		Reflecting on why people make choices about how to live a good life, children consider their views on what is right and wrong. They investigate how some Jewish people use a tallit to help them remember guidance and explore objects that others may use in a similar way. Children write their own moral code mini-book inspired by their learning in this unit. (Christian/Jewish, Buddhist, Muslim, Hindu, Humanist)
Spring 1	Is scripture central to religion? (6 lessons)	Spring 2	What happens if we do wrong? (6 lessons) - coming soon!
	Investigating how scripture is used and respected by different people, children build their understanding of religious texts. Through virtual or real-life visits to places of worship, they act as detectives to find evidence of how scripture is present and used in these spaces. (Christian, Muslim, Jewish)		Developing their previous learning about the role of god and moral guidance, children explore the meaning of consequences to different people. They design and play snakes and ladders style games to explore beliefs about reincarnation. (Hindu, Muslim, Humanist, Christian, Jewish)
Summer 1	Are all religions equal? (6 lessons) - coming soon!	Summer 2	Does the language of scripture matter? (6 lessons) - coming soon!
	Exploring the origins of religions, children explore geographical and historical links and connections between some religions. They investigate Sikh and Bahá'í beliefs and practices that reflect unity and equality to plan a promotional video, poster or slide show for World Religion Day. (Bahá'í, Sikh, Hindu)		Expanding on their understanding of the importance and place of scripture, children find out about the different languages scriptures are used in and what this reveals about different beliefs. They try their hands at Arabic calligraphy and retell the story of different diasporas using a map. (Christian, Muslim, Jewish)

Additional collection lessons (optional)	Christmas How is Christmas part of a bigger story? (1 lesson)	Easter How is Easter celebrated around the world? (1 lesson)
	Exploring the importance of Christmas to many Christians based on events before and after the birth of Jesus.	Investigating Easter celebrations to find out how Easter is celebrated across the world and why these traditions are important to some communities.

Year 5/6 Cycle A

Autumn 1	Respectful R&W (1 lesson) Learning about religion and worldviews and teaching children how to be respectful during Religion and worldviews lessons.	Autumn 2	Why do Dharmic religions look different around the world? (6 lessons) Considering how people practise their religion and worldview, children think about the influence culture, history, geography and tradition have on how religion looks in different places and challenge their perceptions. After exploring why there are different Buddhist schools, they compare a range of practices by experiencing some of them in the classroom. (Hindu, Sikh, Buddhist, Jain)
	Why do people have to stand up for what they believe in? (6 lessons) Thinking about religious freedom, children use historical and modern-day examples of people, such as Guy Fawkes, who have fought for their beliefs. They use debate and critical analysis activities to discuss controversial issues. (Christian, Muslim, Sikh)		What place does religion have in our world today? (6 lessons) Exploring their own worldview and the religious composition of their class, children use census data and digital mapping to investigate what these can suggest about religion and its limitations. They consider the importance of freedom of religion or belief and how Religion and worldviews lessons can help them become better citizens in the future. (Multiple worldviews)
Spring 1	What happens when we die? Part 1 (6 lessons) Interpreting different sources of wisdom and beliefs about what happens when we die, children find out what different people from Abrahamic and non-religious perspectives do to mark someone's death. They explore how this is linked with beliefs about the afterlife through scripture, poems and readings and consider the concepts of heaven and hell through art. (Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Humanist)	Spring 2	Who should get to be in charge? (6 lessons) Investigating the different ways religious leadership and authority are determined, children explore what happens when people don't agree. They examine evidence, use debating techniques and develop their knowledge of democracy, bloodline and being 'chosen' to think critically about the issues raised. (Muslim, Sikh, Christian)
Summer 1	What happens when we die? Part 2 (6 lessons) Continuing to investigate concepts relating to death, children learn the meaning of reincarnation and enlightenment and compare these ideas with those studied in part 1. They create a visual representation of enlightenment, incorporating their own beliefs and those of different worldviews. (Hindu, Buddhist, Sikh)	Summer 2	Why do some people use different names for Jesus? (1 lesson) Investigating the different names and titles used for Jesus and what these mean for some Christians.
Additional collection lessons (optional)	Christmas Why do some people use different names for Jesus? (1 lesson) Investigating the different names and titles used for Jesus and what these mean for some Christians.	Easter What might the Easter story suggest about life after death? (1 lesson) Exploring the symbolism of Jesus' resurrection, the children consider beliefs about death and how the Easter story can bring comfort to many Christians.

Autumn 1	Respectful R&W (1 lesson)	Autumn 2	Why are some places in the world significant to believers? (6 lessons) - coming soon!
	Learning about religion and worldviews and teaching children how to be respectful during Religion and worldviews lessons.		Using maps, pictures and texts, children investigate why some places are significant to some religions. They explore why this has sometimes led to conflicts and what these places can reveal about beliefs and culture. Acting as visitors, they examine primary sources and what these can tell us about the past and significance. (Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, Muslim, Sikh and Hindu)
Spring 1	Why doesn't Christianity always look the same? (6 lessons)	Spring 2	Why is there suffering? Part 1 (6 sessions) - coming soon!
	Exploring the spread of Christian beliefs worldwide, children will look at how geography and history influenced Christian practices. By examining Bible stories, historical accounts, and first-hand experiences, they will investigate why, despite sharing the same fundamental beliefs, Christian practices vary in the UK and around the world. They will role-play as people of the past to understand why Pentecost was a pivotal moment in the development of Christianity.		Discussing suffering, sin and free will, children find out what people from different worldviews think about this challenging question. Through analysing stories and texts, they explore why some people turn to God in times of suffering whereas others take it as evidence that God does not exist. (Jewish, Christian, Zoroastrianist, Buddhist)
Summer 1	Why do Abrahamic religions look different around the world? (6 lessons) - coming soon!	Summer 2	Why is there suffering? Part 2 (6 lessons) - coming soon!
	Building on comparisons about the origins of the Abrahamic religions, children discover how some religious practices are observed. They consider how culture, tradition, migration and interpretation can affect how someone practices their religion. (Jewish, Muslim, Christian)		Deepening their understanding of suffering, children explore alternative ideas about and responses to suffering through texts and stories. They consider how people might respond to suffering and how their reactions are influenced by their worldview. (Shinto, Buddhist, Sikh Humanist)
Additional collection lessons (optional)	Christmas Who celebrates Christmas? (1 lesson)	Easter Why might some people take part in Easter traditions? (1 lesson)
	Investigating what Christmas means to some people and how this can influence what happens during the Christmas period.		Considering the impact of different Easter traditions and practices, the children discuss how symbolism, connection to God, and a sense of community are reflected.
